

Short Biography.

Dr. Marie-Elaine Grant (PT, PhD) a graduate of University College Dublin and a member of the IOC Medical and Scientific Commission (Games Group), specializes in sports physiotherapy and clinical research. In her clinical practice she works with athletes from youth development through to high performance. She has worked extensively on implementing injury prevention strategies and has undertaken published research projects on the importance of the role of sports physiotherapy. She has been an NOC lead physiotherapist for 5 Summer and 2 Winter Olympic Games in addition has monitored physiotherapy services on behalf of the IOC for 3 consecutive Summer and 2 Winter Olympic Games, Tokyo 2020 being the most recent. She continues to remain actively involved in the education and training of undergraduate and postgraduate physiotherapists. She regularly contributes to conferences and advises on programs for ongoing professional development of students and her peers.