

Omer Batin Gozubuyuk, M.D., M.Sc., F.A.C.S.E.P.

Graduated from Istanbul University Medical Faculty in 2010, Dr Gozubuyuk spent 7 months as an Anatomy resident. This was followed by his residency training at the same University, Sports Medicine Department. He completed the residency in 2016 becoming a Sports Medicine Specialist, and also did a Master's Degree in Biomedical Engineering from Bogazici University, Istanbul in 2018. Starting from his residency years, Dr Gozubuyuk also worked as a doping control officer, a locum team physician for National U15,16, Futsal, Beach Soccer teams and then a 4 year long commitment of Basaksehir Football Club's A team physician. Dr Gozubuyuk decided to relocate to Australia in 2019 and obtained the prestigious title of 'Fellow of the Australasian College of Sports and Exercise Physicians' in 2020. He has numerous publications and presentations at both national and international level, and now working as a private clinician at MP Sports Physicians and LifeCare Croydon Sports Medicine in Melbourne, Australia.